

Scholarships for Native American Women

at

SCHOLARSHIPS
for graduate or undergraduate students majoring in the Sciences

Eligibility criteria

Undergraduates

GPA of 2.0 or above
Major in the Sciences
Evidence of Indian ancestry (tribal registry or Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood)
Members of United States federally recognized Indian tribes or indigenous women in Canada, Mexico or a Central America country
Financial Need

Graduate Students

Acceptance to a CSU graduate program in the Sciences
Evidence of Indian ancestry (tribal registry or Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood)
Members of United States federally Recognized Indian tribes or indigenous women in Canada, Mexico or a Central America country
Financial Need

To Apply

Send:

All transcripts
Application letter expressing your interest and identifying your preferred major
Two letters of recommendation from faculty
Evidence of tribal registry or C.D.I.B.
For non-CSU students: copy of your completed application for admission

To:

Native American Women Scholarships
Dr. Greg Florant
Department of Biology
Colorado State University
Fort Collins, CO 80523

By mid-April – For Fall Semester
By mid-November – For Spring Semester

For more information send E-mail:

Dr. Greg Florant
E-mail address: florant@lamar.colostate.edu
970-491-7627
Or: Native American Student Services
tyrone.smith@colostate.edu
970-491-1332

Submit application to:

Dr. Greg Florant
Department of Biology
Colorado State University
Fort Collins CO 80523-1878

