Instructor Open Pool

Title: Instructor
Employment Type: Academic Faculty
College: Natural Sciences
Department: Physics
Salary: Salary is commensurate with number of credit hours taught per semester.

Requirements: The Department of Physics seeks applications for 2012-2013 from individuals who are interested in temporary Instructor positions within the department.

Temporary Instructors will teach undergraduate and/or graduate courses. Temporary Instructor requirements are a Masters degree in Physics or closely related areas, or a Bachelor of Science degree in Physics with previous university teaching experience in Physics.

A detailed description of the department and individual faculty are available on the department web page http://www.physics.colostate.edu

This pool is valid through January 31, 2013, at which time all applicants wishing to remain in the pool must reapply.

To Apply: Interested individuals should send a current resume, a statement of research experience and interest and names and addresses of three references directly to a specific faculty member in the department. Alternatively, the material can be submitted electronically either to a specific faculty member or to the department office at mailto:physics@lamar.colostate.edu

Colorado State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. Colorado State University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce and complies with all Federal and Colorado State laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding non-discrimination and affirmative action. The Office of Equal Opportunity is located in 101 Student Services.

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search and motor vehicle history.